CAMANO ISLAND: WHALECOME HOME

I love everything about living on Camano Island. Camano Island has some of the best sunsets in the Pacific Northwest, whales visit us frequently and our waters are rich with Dungeness crab; it is no wonder why people here are so happy and friendly. Only an hour north of the hustle and bustle of busy Seattle and with no ferry needed to get on and off the island, Camano Island is a hidden gem. As a resident, I have local knowledge of this beautiful community and can help you find your own piece of paradise.

I am a strong client advocate and listening to my clients and putting their needs first is of the utmost importance to me. I am here to help you reach your housing goals and help you make the right move!

If you are currently working with a real estate agent, this is not meant as a solicitation for that business.

CAMANO ISLAND IS TOTALLY CLAWSOME!
